/* Quiz01_COPR1_TouchyWindowQuiz
Once this file is open, go to File, Make a copy, then change the name to A1_Quiz01_TouchyWindow_YourLastName
You may also write this quiz in Notability on your iPad and submit a PDF. No other formats.
If you're on a computer - ADD the file to: 1516_1A_LastName_FirstName_TurnIn Remember you are not MOVING the file, you're Adding it to another folder. From Google Drive via the web locate the file, tap ONCE on it, then press Shift + z, an Add to menu will pop up. Locate the TurnIn folder you shared with me, click it, then click Add.
If you're using Google Drive via finder, just copy and paste from one folder to the next. Make sure Google Drive is syncing! Ask me if you are not sure.
If you're using your iPad or device, open the assignment via Google Docs, then click on the 3 dots in the upper right, choose Share & Export, then make a copy, change the name, then move the file to the Turnin folder.

Using the space below, write the TouchyWindow program. The numbers do not have to be exact.

```java
public class LoLRiCkROllnevErgonnaGIVEUup extends WindowController { public void main() { LoLRiCkROllnevErgonnaGIVEUup().startController(400, 400);
        }
        public void static onMousePress(Location point) { new Text("SEGMENTATION FAULT", 40, 50, canvas);
        }
        public void static onMouseRelease(Location point) {
                canvas.clear();
        }

/* Once you complete #Quiz01_COPR1_TouchyWindowQuiz, triple check all formatting, including tabs, blank lines, and especially that you name the doc correctly (see above).

You've already added the file to the Turnin folder. Make sure it is named correctly.
You MUST sumbit the file for grading through Edmodo. Ask me if you have any questions!
Go to d5.edmodo.com, find the assignment, and submit via google drive link. Do not attach the file - click on your backpack up top, make sure you have connected your Google Drive account - once you Allow, wait for the screen to refresh and show your Google Drive. Then navigate back to this assignment, click Turn In, then choose your backpack icon below, then Google Drive, then find the file. You will click the BackPack icon, then select Google Drive on the left, then search for the correct file to submit.
